About the available covers

You can choose one of these three covers:

- Comprehensive Cover;
- Third Party Property Damage Cover Only; and
- Third Party Property Damage, Fire and Theft Cover.

By way of summary only (refer to policy for full terms, conditions, exclusions and limits):

Comprehensive cover – provides cover for:

- Accidental Loss or Damage to Your Vehicle up to an agreed value (ie. a set amount we agree with you) or market value (ie. the cost to replace your vehicle with a vehicle of the same make, model, age and condition as your vehicle immediately prior to the loss or damage).
- Your legal liability up to $20 million each event (including certain legal defence costs), for:
 - damage to other people's property caused by a motor vehicle accident which is your fault;
 - death or bodily injury caused by or arising out of the use of your vehicle in limited circumstances.
- A number of other additional benefits.
- Certain optional covers (where agreed) such as rental or loan car following an accident, removal of basic excess for windscreen claims, protected no claim bonus and restricted driver cover.
Note that the restricted driver option provides a discounted premium, but limits the drivers who are covered under the policy.

Third Party Property Damage Cover only – provides cover for:

- legal liability – same as for comprehensive cover, including the additional benefit of legal liability cover for loss or damage to someone else's property while using a substitute vehicle.
- loss or damage to your vehicle arising from an accident caused by the driver of an uninsured vehicle, up to the maximum limit specified.

Third Party Property Damage, Fire and Theft Cover – provides cover for:

- loss or damage caused by fire or theft that occurs to your vehicle, up to the market value or agreed value.
- towing of your vehicle to specified places following a covered fire or theft.
- legal liability – same as for comprehensive cover, including the additional benefit of legal liability cover for loss or damage to someone else’s property while using a substitute vehicle.
- loss or damage to your vehicle arising from an accident caused by the driver of an uninsured vehicle, up to the maximum limit specified.

Understanding your policy and its important terms and conditions

To properly understand this policy’s significant features, benefits and risks you need to carefully read:

- about each of the available types of cover and benefits in the relevant sections, including any endorsements (remember certain words have special meanings – see the “Introduction” section);
- “When we will not pay your claim” section (this restricts the cover and benefits);
- “Conditions of cover” and “Making a claim” sections (these set out certain obligations that you and we have. If you do not meet them we may be able to refuse to pay a claim); and
- “Other information” section (this contains important information on your duty of disclosure, our privacy policy and our dispute resolution process).

When you apply for the policy by completing our application we agree with you on things such as: the period of insurance; your premium; what property you want to cover; the limits you want for certain covers (if optional); excesses that will apply to you or others and whether any standard terms need to be varied (this may be by way of an endorsement). These details are recorded in the schedule we issue to you.

The base premium we charge varies according to your risk profile (e.g. where you live, the type of property being insured, amount of cover required, other persons insured and relevant claims history etc). In some cases discounts may apply if you meet certain criteria we set. You will also have to pay any compulsory government charges (e.g. Stamp Duty and GST) and Fire Services Levy (where applicable) plus any additional charges we tell you of. We tell you the total amount payable when you apply and if you effect cover, the amounts due will be confirmed in your schedule.

If you pay your premium by instalments refer to the “Conditions of cover” section for important details on your and our rights and obligations. Note that an instalment premium outstanding for 14 days may result in our refusal to pay a claim.

This policy sets out the cover we are able to provide you with. You need to decide if the limits, type and level of cover are appropriate for you and will cover your potential loss. If they are not, you may be underinsured and have to bear part of any loss you are not covered for yourself. To avoid this, people seek to set the sum insured for the relevant property being insured at its estimated replacement value.

You should also read the GST Notice to understand how GST is applied to a claim.

If you have any queries, want further information about the policy or want to confirm a transaction, please use the contact details on the back cover.

Cooling off period and cancellation rights

Even after you have decided, you have a cooling off period and cancellation rights (see conditions of cover section for details).

Preparation Date: 21/12/2006.

Updating the PDS

Information in the PDS may need to be updated from time to time. You can obtain a paper copy of any updated information without charge by calling us on the contact details provided on the back cover of this policy document. If the update is to correct a misleading or deceptive statement or an omission, that is materially adverse from the point of view of a reasonable person deciding whether to acquire this policy, we will provide you with a new PDS or a supplementary PDS.

About Steadfast

Steadfast is an unlisted public company comprising over 260 shareholders. Each shareholder is an independent insurance brokerage. This policy is available exclusively to you through shareholders of Steadfast Group Limited. Steadfast Group Limited does not issue, guarantee or underwrite this policy.

Important information about Steadfast's advice

Any advice Steadfast gives about this policy does not take into account any of your particular objectives, financial situation or needs. For this reason, before you act on Steadfast's advice, you should consider the appropriateness of the advice taking into account your own objectives, financial situation and needs. Before you make any decisions about whether to acquire this policy we recommend you should read this PDS.

What the policy consists of Your policy consists of:

- this printed Allianz Prestige Motor insurance policy document which sets out details of your cover and its limitations, and
- a schedule, approved by us, which sets out who is insured, the cover(s) selected, the period of insurance, the limits of liability, excesses and other important information. This is referred to as the current schedule in the policy document.

You should carefully read and retain your insurance policy document and current schedule. These documents should be read together as they jointly form the contract of insurance between you and us. Any new or replacement schedule we may send you, detailing changes to your insurance or the period of insurance, will become the current schedule, which you should carefully read and retain.

Our agreement with you

We will insure you for accidental loss, damage or liability which happens within Australia arising out of the events set out in your policy during the period of insurance.

This cover will be given on the basis:

- that you have paid or agreed to pay us the premium for the cover you have selected when you applied for cover and which the current schedule indicates is in force,
- of the verbal and/or written information provided by you which you gave after having been advised of your duty of disclosure either verbally or in writing. If you failed to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the policy in respect of a claim or we may cancel your policy. If you have told us something which is fraudulent, we also have the option of avoiding your policy from the effective date stated in the current schedule.

For your assistance we have provided a full explanation of your duty of disclosure and the consequences of non-disclosure, under the heading “Your Duty of Disclosure”, on page 37.

- firearms, or
- tools or items used in connection with a business or occupation.

“substitute vehicle” means a vehicle similar to your vehicle which has been hired or borrowed because your vehicle is being repaired, serviced or is not drivable because of a mechanical breakdown.

At our option we will:

Replacement of new vehicle after a total loss

If your vehicle was purchased new by you and becomes a total loss within two years of the starting date of the original registration, we will replace your vehicle with a new vehicle of the same make, model and series. If a replacement vehicle is not currently available, we will pay you either the market value or agreed value of your vehicle, whichever is shown in the current schedule. If we replace your vehicle, this policy will continue to cover your new replacement vehicle until the end of the period of insurance. We will not require you to pay any additional premium for this cover.

- b. which is insurable under any statutory or compulsory insurance policy or any statutory or compulsory insurance or compensation scheme or fund covering such legal liability.

No cover for legal liability after a total loss

On the date we confirm that we will pay your claim for the total loss of your vehicle, all cover under the policy in respect of that vehicle will cease.

Additional cover for supplementary bodily injury (legal liability)

We will also cover you, or a currently licensed driver of your vehicle driving the vehicle with your consent, for legal liability for death or bodily injury caused by or arising out of the use of your vehicle, if your vehicle is registered for use on a public road when the liability is incurred, from one or more of the following events:

- driving or being in charge of your vehicle or a substitute vehicle,

We will also cover the legal liability of a passenger travelling in or getting into or out of your vehicle with your permission, or the permission of a currently licensed driver driving or in charge of your vehicle with your consent.

2. any amount of a claim over that recoverable under any:

- the keys have not been stolen by a family member, invitee or person who resides with you, and

Policy options

Your current schedule will show which, if any, of the following policy options apply. Depending on the policy options selected, your premium may have been increased or reduced.

1. Rental or loan car following an accident

When the current schedule shows that the rental or loan car following an accident option applies and we accept a claim for accidental damage, we will:

- provide you with a rental or loan car; or
- if a rental or loan car is not available, pay you a daily travel allowance of $30.

The rental or loan car benefit will be provided from:

- the date repairs to your vehicle are authorised, or
- the date your vehicle is made available for repairs to be commenced, whichever is the later.

The maximum daily rental charge we will pay is $75.

We will provide the rental or loan car benefit:

- for a maximum period of 14 days, or
- until the repairs have been completed, or
- until we settle your claim by paying you the agreed value or market value, whichever happens first.

We will not pay for:

- a rental car unless its hire has been arranged by us or approved by us,
- the cost of fuel used while driving the loan car, or
- any accidental loss or damage to the rental or loan car.

2. Removal of basic excess for windscreen claims

When the current schedule shows that the removal of basic excess for windscreen claims option applies, if the windscreen or window glass in your vehicle is accidentally broken we will not apply an excess to your claim.

This option only applies:

- a. if the fracture extends through the entire thickness of the glass or, in the case of laminated windscreens, a fracture extends through all layers of the windscreen;
- b. to one claim in any one period of insurance; and
- c. if the broken windscreen or window glass is the only damage to your vehicle.

Your no claim bonus entitlement is not affected if your claim relates to the cost of repairing or replacing the windscreen or window glass in your vehicle if it is accidentally broken.

3. Protected no claim bonus

When the current schedule shows that protected no claim bonus option applies, we will not reduce your current no claim bonus entitlement for the first claim in any one period of insurance which is your fault or where the responsible party cannot be identified.

4. Restricted drivers

When the current schedule shows that the restricted driver option applies we will not cover any accidental loss, damage or liability, which results in a claim, when the driver of your vehicle was a person under 30 years of age.

We will not refuse to pay your claim if the driver of your vehicle:

- a. was found guilty of theft or illegal use of your vehicle;
- b. was a person paid by you to repair, service or test your vehicle; or
- c. was an attendant at a car park.

5. Tools of trade

When we accept a claim for accidental damage (including theft) under this policy, we will also cover accidental loss or damage to tools of trade, trade stock and materials.

This option only applies:

- if the tools of trade, trade stock or materials are stolen via forcible and violent entry to your securely locked vehicle and/or tool box, permanently fixed to your vehicle; or
- if tools of trade, trade stock or materials are damaged as a result of a motor vehicle collision.

The maximum we will pay is the amount by which the cost to replace tools of trade, trade stock and materials exceeds the basic excess payable for the claim, up to a maximum amount of $1,500 for any one claim.

Only one basic excess is applicable to any one claim event and only the basic excess is applicable to this Tools of Trade policy option.

How you earn a no claim bonus

For each claim free period of insurance you will accumulate a discount off your motor vehicle insurance premium up to a maximum amount. This maximum amount will vary according to the State or Territory in which your vehicle is garaged/kept. Any no claim bonus entitlement you hold with another insurance company is transferable. You may be required to provide documentary evidence of your current no claim bonus entitlement.

- loading or unloading your vehicle or a substitute vehicle.

We will also cover the legal liability of a passenger travelling in or getting into or out of your vehicle with your permission, or the permission of a currently licensed driver driving or in charge of your vehicle with your consent.

- alter the terms and conditions of your policy, or

Before we agree to renew your policy you must tell us if, during the current period of insurance, you or any person who is a driver of your vehicle has:

- had any fines or penalties imposed for a traffic offence, other than a parking fine, or
- been convicted of any traffic offences, or
- had a driver's licence cancelled or suspended or been disqualified from holding a driver's licence for any period, or and we may do so by giving you three days notice in writing of the date from which the policy will be cancelled. The notification may be delivered personally or posted to you at the address last notified to us.

- c. If you or we cancel the policy we may deduct a pro rata proportion of the premium for time on risk, reasonable administrative costs related to the acquisition and termination of the policy and any government taxes or duties we cannot recover.
- d. In the event that you have made a claim under this policy and we have agreed to pay the full sum insured for your property no return of premium will be made for any unused portion of the premium.

4. Keeping evidence of the value of the insured property

You should keep evidence of the value of all property covered under your insurance policy. You should also keep evidence of the amount of any accidental loss, damage or destruction.

5. Premium payment by direct debit

You may have chosen to pay the premium for this insurance by direct debit from a financial institution holding your account or your credit card account. If you choose this option, the financial institution may dishonour the direct debit payment due to lack of funds in your account. If this occurs, we may charge you for any direct and indirect costs which we incur arising from the payment being dishonoured.

6. Prevention of loss or damage

We may not pay your claim if you do not take all reasonable precautions to prevent injury, loss or damage, including securing your vehicle against unauthorised entry when it is unattended. It is a condition of this policy that your vehicle be kept in good repair.

7. GST Notice

This policy has a GST provision in relation to premium and our payment to you for claims. It may have an impact on how you determine the amount of insurance you need. Please read it carefully. Seek professional advice if you have any queries about GST and your insurance.

Sums insured

All monetary limits in this policy may be increased for GST in some circumstances (see below).

Claim settlements – Where we agree to pay

When we calculate the amount we will pay you, we will have regard to the items below:

- Where you are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to your claim (such as services to repair a damaged item insured under the policy) we will pay for the GST amount.

We will pay the GST amount in addition to the sum insured/limit of indemnity or other limits shown in the policy or in this schedule.

If your sum insured/limit of liability is not sufficient to cover your loss, we will only pay the GST amount that relates to our settlement of your claim.

We will reduce the GST amount we pay for by the amount of any input tax credits to which you are or would be entitled.

- Where we make a payment under this policy as compensation instead of payment for a relevant acquisition, we will reduce the amount of the payment by the amount of any input tax credit that you would have been entitled to had the payment been applied to a relevant acquisition.
- Where the policy insures business interruption, we will (where relevant) pay you on your claim by reference to the GST exclusive amount of any supply made by your business that is relevant to your claim.

Disclosure – Input tax credit entitlement

If you register, or are registered, for GST you are required to tell us your entitlement to an input tax credit on your premium. If you fail to disclose or understate your entitlement, you may be liable for GST on a claim we may pay. This policy does not cover you for this GST liability, or for any fine, penalty or charge for which you may be liable.

Making a claim

What you must do

We may not pay your claim if you do not act as follows:

1. Do not admit liability

You must not:

- a. admit guilt or liability, or make a promise or offer of payment in connection with any claim; or
- b. offer or agree to settle any claim, without our written consent.

We are entitled to take over and conduct the defence of any claim made against you for damages by a third party. We have full discretion in conducting any negotiations, proceedings and the settlement of claims.

If the claim is for legal liability, you may make a written request to us to agree that you are covered in respect of the claim.

2. Prevent further damage

You must take all reasonable precautions to prevent any further loss, damage or liability.

3. Contact the police

Depending on the laws of the State or Territory in which the accident occurs, you must:

- a. contact the police if any person was injured as a result of the accident;
- b. request the police to attend the scene of the accident;
- c. go to the local police station to complete a 'Self Reporting Collision Form' if the police inform you that it is not necessary for them to attend the scene of the accident.

You must contact the police immediately if your car is stolen or maliciously damaged.

4. Contact us as soon as possible

If there is any accidental loss, damage or liability which is likely to result in a claim, you must give us immediate notice with the full details of any accidental loss, damage or anticipated or alleged liability.

You or your representative must give us full details in the manner we request which will be either:

- a. in writing by completing our claim form which will be supplied to you when you contact us; or
- b. verbally.

The process for authorising repairs to your vehicle is explained on page 34 under “Authorising repairs”.

Any correspondence you receive regarding the accident or event must be sent to us immediately.

You must advise us immediately of:

- a. any notice of impending prosecution;
- b. details of any inquest or official enquiry.

What happens after you make a claim

1. Excess

An excess is the amount shown in the current schedule which you must pay when you make a claim under your policy unless we state an excess does not apply. The payment of an excess helps to keep the cost of your premium down by reducing the number of small claims. There are different types of excess which may apply to you or the driver of your vehicle at the time of the claim. The excess types are shown on the current schedule under the heading “Excess applicable to claims”. These are:

a. Basic excess

The basic excess is the first amount you must pay on each claim. The amount of the basic excess will be shown on the current schedule beside the heading “Basic excess”.

b. Age excess

If you make a claim for an accident when your vehicle was being driven by or was in the charge of a driver under the age of 25, you must pay the age excess shown in the current schedule in addition to the basic excess.

c. Undeclared young driver excess

If you make a claim for an accident when your vehicle was being driven by or was in the charge of a driver under the age of 25, who was not listed in your current schedule, the undeclared young driver excess shown on the schedule must be paid in addition to the basic excess and age excess.

You will not have to pay an undeclared young driver excess if the driver:

- was found guilty of the theft or illegal use of your vehicle,
- had been paid by you to repair, service or test your vehicle, or
- was an attendant at a car park.

d. Inexperienced driver excess

You will need to pay the inexperienced driver excess shown on your current schedule in addition to the basic excess payable if you make a claim for an accident when your vehicle was being driven by or was in the charge of a driver over the age of 25 who has not held an Australian driver's licence for more than 2 years.

e. Theft excess

If you make a claim for loss or damage caused by or arising from theft or attempted theft of your vehicle, you must pay the theft of vehicle excess shown in your current schedule in addition to all other excesses shown in your current schedule.

When you do not have to pay an excess

You will not have to pay any excess if:

- a. the driver of your vehicle at the time of the accident did not contribute to the cause of the accident; or
- b. your vehicle was damaged while parked.

And you provide us with:

- (i) the name, address and licence number of each responsible party, and
- (ii) the registration number of the other vehicle(s) involved in the accident.

Nor will you have to pay any young driver (age), undeclared young driver or inexperienced driver excess if you are claiming for any of the following:

- a. windscreen or window glass damage only;
- b. theft;
- c. hail, storm or flood damage;
- d. malicious damage; or
- e. damage to your vehicle while parked.

2. No claim bonus

Your no claim bonus entitlement will not be affected if:

- a. the driver of your vehicle at the time of the accident did not contribute to the cause of the accident; or
- b. your vehicle was damaged while parked, and you supply us with the:
 - name, address and licence number of the responsible party, and
 - registration number of the other vehicle(s) involved in the accident;
- c. your claim relates to the cost of repairing or replacing the windscreen or window glass in your vehicle if it is accidentally broken.

3. Deciding who is at fault

We will be solely responsible for deciding whether you contributed to the cause of an accident.

4. Choice of repairer

We respect your right to choose the repairer of your choice or we can recommend an approved Allianz network repairer. We will work with the agreed repairer to achieve the best repair outcome for you.

5. Authorising repairs

- a. Where you have comprehensive cover you may only authorise emergency repairs as detailed on page 11 under “Emergency repairs”. You cannot authorise further repairs to your vehicle without our prior consent.
- b. Before we make a decision regarding your claim and repairs to your vehicle, we may need to inspect your vehicle. A motor vehicle assessor will be appointed by us. We or our assessor will make the necessary arrangements with you.

6. Spare parts, extras and accessories

If we are unable to repair the part we use new, recycled or reconditioned parts that meet the requirements of Australian Design Rules (ADR). If such parts are not available or appropriate, parts from alternative distribution channels may be used.

We will not pay any amount greater than the maker’s last list price in Australia (together with a reasonable charge for fitting) for the supply of any spare part, extra or accessory. In the event that any spare part, extra or accessory cannot be obtained immediately, we may choose to pay you the value of the spare part, extra or accessory (together with a reasonable charge for fitting) rather than supply the spare part, extra or accessory.

7. Sublet repairs

If your vehicle requires us to engage the services of a specific specialist repairer and/or supplier we may sublet that component to such repairer or supplier.

8. Guarantee and warranty

We guarantee materials and workmanship on repairs we authorise for as long as you own or lease your vehicle. This guarantee is not transferable.

9. Assist us with your claim

You must assist us with your claim. This means give us all the information and assistance with your claim which we may reasonably require. If you do not we may not pay your claim or provide cover.

If we have the right to recover any amount payable under this policy from any other person, you must co-operate with us in any action we may take.

10. Our rights of recovery

- a. We have the right to recover from any person, in your name, the amount of any claim paid under this policy and we have full discretion in the conduct, settlement or defence of any claim in your name. If we recover more than the amount we have paid to you or on your behalf, we will pay you the balance.
- b. The amount of excess you have paid will only be refunded when we have recovered the total amount we have paid under your claim, unless we have agreed otherwise.

11. Salvage of your vehicle when it is a total loss

If your vehicle is a total loss and we have agreed to pay the market value or agreed value for your vehicle:

- the wreckage of your vehicle will become our property, and
- we will keep the proceeds of any salvage sale.

12. Payment of unpaid premium when your vehicle is a total loss

If your vehicle is a total loss and we have agreed to pay the market value or agreed value for your vehicle:

- the amount of any unpaid premium for the period of insurance will be deducted from the amount payable to you, and
- if we are replacing your vehicle, you must pay us the balance of any unpaid premium or instalments for the period of insurance.

13. No return of premium after a total loss

If your vehicle is a total loss and we have agreed to pay the market value or agreed value for your vehicle, no return of premium will be made for any unused portion of the premium.

14. GST

We will adjust your claims payment in accordance with the GST provision noted under “Conditions of cover”, “GST Notice” on page 29.

Other information

Renewal procedure

Before this policy expires we will normally offer renewal by sending a renewal invitation advising the amount payable to renew this policy. It is important that you check the information shown before renewing each year to satisfy yourself that the details are correct.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract with us, the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 requires you to provide us with the information we need to enable us to decide whether and on what terms your proposal for insurance is acceptable and to calculate how much premium is required for your insurance.

The Act imposes a different duty the first time you enter into the policy with us to that which applies when you vary, renew, extend, reinstate or replace your policy. We set these two duties out below.

Your duty of disclosure when you enter into this policy with us for the first time

You will be asked various questions when you first apply for this policy. When you answer these questions, you must:

- give us honest and complete answers,
- tell us everything you know, and
- tell us everything that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to tell us.

Your Duty of Disclosure when you renew, vary, extend, reinstate or replace your policy.

When you renew, vary, extend, reinstate or replace the policy your duty is to tell us before the renewal, variation, extension, reinstatement or replacement is made, every matter known to you which:

- you know, or
- a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to insure you and whether any special conditions need to apply to your policy.

What you do not need to tell us for either duty

You do not need to tell us about any matter:

- that diminishes our risk,

- that is of common knowledge,
- that we know or should know as an insurer, or
- that we tell you we do not need to know.

Who do the above two duties apply to?

Everyone who is insured under the policy must comply with the relevant duty.

What happens if you or they do not comply with either duty?

If you or they do not comply with the relevant duty, we may cancel the policy or reduce the amount we pay if you make a claim. If fraud is involved, we may treat the policy as if it never existed and pay nothing.

Privacy Act 1988 – Information

The Privacy Act 1988 contains National Privacy Principles which require us to tell you that as an insurer we collect, handle, store and disclose your personal and sensitive information in order to:

- decide whether to issue a policy,
- determine the terms and conditions of your policy,
- compile data, and
- handle claims.

Sensitive information includes, amongst other things, information about an individual's health, membership of professional associations and criminal records. You have given us your consent to collect your personal and sensitive information in order to issue you with this policy.

We disclose personal information to third parties who we believe are necessary to assist us and them in providing the relevant services and products. For example, in handling claims, we may have to disclose your personal and other information to third parties such as other insurers, reinsurers, loss adjusters, external claims data collectors, investigators and agents or other parties as required by law. We limit the use and disclosure of any personal information provided by us to them to the specific purpose for which we supplied it.

You have the right to seek access to your personal and sensitive information and to correct it at any time. Allianz Australia aims to ensure that your personal information is accurate, up-to-date and complete. Please contact us on 13 2664 EST 8am-6pm, Monday-Friday if you would like to seek access to, or revise your personal information or feel that the information we currently have on record is incorrect or incomplete or believe that the privacy of your personal information at Allianz Australia has been interfered with. In these cases you are entitled to raise your concerns. Your complaint will be managed and resolved through our internal Privacy Complaint Procedure.

Should you wish to obtain more information about Allianz's privacy policies, please contact us and ask for a copy of our booklet called "General Insurance Information Privacy Code".

From time to time we may advise or offer you information on other Allianz products or services that may be relevant and of interest to you. General Insurance Code of Practice – providing you with even better service

The General Insurance Code of Practice was developed by the Insurance Council of Australia to further raise standards of practice and service across the insurance industry.

We keenly support the standards set out in the Code.

You can obtain more information on the Code of Practice and how it assists you by contacting us. Contact details are provided on the back cover of this policy.

Dispute resolution process – helping you solve any problems

Complaints or disputes are not an everyday occurrence at Allianz. We strive to do things the right way and keep our customers happy.

Sometimes though, complaints or disputes do occur and when this happens, our objective is to resolve any disagreement as amicably and as quickly as possible. We believe the best way to achieve this is to provide you with an opportunity for an unbiased review of the issue.

Here is what to do if a complaint or dispute arises

Regardless of whether the complaint or dispute involves our staff, an agent, loss adjuster, assessor, investigator or the service we provide, simply contact 13 2664; speak to one of our call centre operators and provide them with the details of the issue concerning you. They will attempt to resolve the complaint or dispute, if they are unable to do so they will log it and refer it to the appropriate business unit for resolution.

Within our organisation we have established a complaints and disputes resolution process. This is a free service. It is a system designed to log, track, escalate and monitor complaints received from clients and customers about our services and products. A staff member involved in the complaints and disputes resolution process will write to you within 15 working days advising the outcome of the review and reasons for their decision. We do not consider a complaint or dispute to be resolved until a proposed resolution or solution has been communicated to you and you have accepted the resolution or solution.

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of this process

If we are unable to resolve the complaint or dispute we will offer you the option of referring the matter to the the insurance industry's external independent complaints scheme subject to eligibility.

The scheme will only review complaints or disputes if they have gone through our internal complaints and disputes resolution process

If this insurance has been issued through an insurance intermediary

If your policy has been issued through our agent, or a broker who is acting under a binder arrangement with us, then they are acting as our agent and not as your agent.

If your policy has been issued by a broker, other than a broker acting under a binder arrangement with us, then the broker is acting as your agent.

Where this policy has been arranged through an intermediary a commission is payable by us to them for arranging the insurance.
